Happy Holidays From Our Bible Study Class This Monday will be the last bible study class till after the holidays. We will be finishing up St. Paul's First Letter to the Thessalonians. We will resume the study of St. Paul come the New Year.

Pope Francis's New Encyclical

“Although the Scriptures preserve Jesus’ words, ever alive and timely, there are moments when he speaks to us inwardly, calls us and leads us to a better place.
That better place is his heart.” (Par 43 Dilexit Nos) October 24th Pope Francis’s produced a new encyclical dealing with the heart of Jesus and our heart. It is a beautiful look into the human and divine heart. It is very readable. It can readily be found on the Vatican Website. The encyclical is entitled “Dilexit Nos” (He Loved Us). To celebrate this letter, we will be forming a discussion group to investigate how this deep and powerful teaching from our Pope can influence our lives. All are welcome 6:30 pm, Monday nights starting January 6th in the Chapel room of the old convent. “In this ‘liquid’ world of ours, we need to start speaking once more about the heart and thinking about this place where every person, of every class and condition, creates a synthesis, where they encounter the radical source of their strengths, convictions, passions and decisions.”
(Par 9)
